

Mission Statement

“The National Regional Planning Council (NRPC) is a national community consisting of the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) authorized Regional Planning Committees (RPCs), whose affiliation is linked to states and US Territories. Its mission is to serve all Public Safety Communications Users through planning and management for their spectrum needs.”

- NRPC assists Regional Planning Committees to improve spectrum efficiency and promote interoperability.
- NRPC provides education, training, and facilitation for RPCs to develop and operate their plans effectively.
- NRPC supports forums for RPCs to share information, collaborate, and allocate resources to support RPC business.
- NRPC researches and provides information critical to RPC collaboration and success.
- NRPC receives input from and acts in the interest of RPC's individually and nationally.
- NRPC establishes affiliations with elected and appointed officials to promote RPC representation on issues that benefit public safety interests.
- NRPC educates elected and appointed officials and requests resources needed to support RPC interests.

“Places to Go – Things to See”

What's on the Horizon?

800 MHz NPSPAC Rebanding – Questions or concerns about rebanding got you down, maybe the members on the fifty five 800 MHz Regional Planning Committees can help. Contact your District Director via email for help.

700 MHz Band – What's happening with 700 MHz in your area? Have questions, how to get started, where to apply for spectrum? Once again, the fifty five 700 MHz Regional Planning Committees can get you on track. Contact the District Director for guidance and help with your questions

Regional Plan Development – Are you a Regional Committee Chairperson looking for some assistance with getting that last couple chapters completed so you can complete your plan. Just not sure where to go once you have a draft plan? As a member of the NRPC, reach out to your District Director for help with your questions and we can get you the necessary help to move your plan forward to completion.
